

Analysis of PCIP HIV/AIDS Claim Costs and Costs from Other HIV/AIDS Healthcare Programs

Distribution of Claim Payments per HIV/AIDS Healthcare Program
Claim Type	PCIP¹	OA-PCIP²	Non-OA-PCIP³	CA Medicaid (Medi-Cal)⁴	NY Medicaid⁵
Inpatient	38%	19%	49%	20%	31%
Outpatient	20%	24%	18%	34%	39%
Pharmacy	42%	57%	33%	45%	30%
TOTAL	100%	100%	100%	100%	100%

¹ Consists of claim payments from 312 PCIP subscribers with a HIV/AIDS diagnosis, from Oct. 2010 through Sep. 2012.

Source: Sep. 2012 PCIP data files.

² Consists of claim payments from 218 PCIP subscribers, with a HIV/AIDS diagnosis, that are also enrolled in the Office of AIDS (OA) - PCIP program, from Oct. 2010 through Sep. 2012. Source: Sep. 2012 PCIP data files.

³ Consists of claim payments from 94 PCIP subscribers, with a HIV/AIDS diagnosis, that are not enrolled in the OA-PCIP program, from Oct. 2010 through Sep. 2012. Source: Sep. 2012 PCIP data files.

⁴ Based on semi-annual AIDS related Medi-Cal expenditures for 45,616 recipients, from Jan. 2009 through Jun. 2009.

Source: Semi-Annual AIDS Related Expenditures Report, Aug. 2009

<http://www.dhcs.ca.gov/dataandstats/statistics/Documents/Semi%20Annual%20Report_jj2009.pdf>.

NOTE: Types of service that were not Inpatient Hosp or Drugs were consolidated into the Outpatient category. Drugs are reflected in the Pharmacy category.

⁵ Based on New York HIV/AIDS Medicaid claims for 64,652 New York Medicaid HIV/AIDS patients, for FFY 2007.

Source: HIV Medicaid Programs and Health Care Restructuring, Dec. 2009

<http://www.health.ny.gov/diseases/aids/conferences/workshops/docs/medicaid_programs_healthcare_restructuring.pdf>.

NOTE: Types of service that were not Inpatient or Pharmacy were consolidated into the Outpatient category.